12 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

13 Plaintiff,

v.

14 JORGE MENDOZA-RABAGO,

15 Defendant.

CASE NO. 2:20-CR-220-JAM

STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
ORDER

DATE: March 15, 2022

TIME: 9:30 a.m.

COURT: Hon. John A. Mendez

16
17 By this stipulation, the parties request that the Court continue the March 15, 2022 status
18 conference to May 10, 2022, and to exclude time under Local Code T4 as well under the Court's 19 General Orders, for the reasons set forth below, from March 15, 2022, to May 10, 2022, at 9:30 a.m.

20 On April 17, 2020, this Court issued General Order 617, which suspends all jury trials in the 21 Eastern District of California scheduled to commence before June 15, 2020, and allows district judges to 22 continue all criminal matters to a date after June 1. This and previous General Orders were entered to 23 address public health concerns related to COVID-19.

24 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 25 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive 26 openendedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record findings" in a particular case.
Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). "[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no 27 exclusion under" § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 28

1 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a
2 judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally
3 or in writing”).

4 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
5 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, and 617 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice
6 continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that
7 the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the
8 defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless 9 “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the 10 ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and 11 the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

12 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code 13 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 14 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 15 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance 16 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
17 recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United 18 States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the 19 September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a 20 similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

21 The government requests that, in light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court
22 should consider the following case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this
23 particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).<sup>1</sup> If continued, this
24 Court should designate a new date for the status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 25 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

26
28 <sup>1</sup> The parties note that General Order 612 acknowledges that a district judge may make “additional findings to support the exclusion” at the judge’s discretion. General Order 612, ¶ 5 (E.D.
Cal. March 18, 2020).

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through his counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. By this stipulation, the defendant now moves to continue the status conference to May 10, 2022 , and to exclude time between March 15, 2022, and May 10, 2022, under Local Code T4, in addition to the exclusion of time appropriate in light of public health concerns cited by the Court's General Orders.

2. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

a) Defense counsel needs additional time to review the plea agreement with his client, with the assistance of a Spanish-language interpreter, which has been delayed due to health and safety-related restrictions. As part of the process of negotiating a resolution to this case, defense counsel will need time to investigate and conduct research related to the current charges, and to discuss potential resolutions with his client, to prepare pretrial motions, and to otherwise prepare for trial.

b) The government has produced discovery in this matter, including the arresting officer's report, photographs of the narcotics seized, and DEA laboratory reports. The government has also produced video footage of the arrest taken from a law enforcement vehicle's in-car camera.

c) Counsel for the defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

d) The government does not object to the continuance.

e) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

f) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period between the date of this Court's order and May 10, 2022, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to the Court's General Orders, and

1 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a
2 continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that
3 the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the
4 defendant in a speedy trial.

5 3. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 6 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
7 must commence.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
